St. Ambrose University to Present Survey Results on Insurance Use of Credit Scores
Insurance Division requested study to obtain information from independent source

DES MOINES, November 25, 2009 – At the request of the Iowa Insurance Division, St. Ambrose University in Davenport has completed a study on using an individual’s credit in determining insurance prices. St. Ambrose conducted an academic study that is independent of interested parties on the subject. The study, which contains a summary review of the results of a survey of Iowans, will be presented to the Insurance Division on December 15, 2009 at 10:00 A.M. An electronic version of the study will be available the week before the presentation at www.insuranceca.iowa.gov for viewing.

The presenters will be taking questions from interested parties. Questions may be sent in advance to Angel Robinson, at angel.robinson@iid.iowa.gov, faxed to 515-281-4038, or mailed to 330 Maple Street, Des Moines, Iowa 50319.

The presentation will be conducted over the ICN at two sites in Des Moines and Davenport, listed below. Anyone interested in attending the presentation is welcome to do so.
